

HARDWARE MAINTENANCE

Premium Hardware Maintenance

The success of your IT department is measured by the availability of your computer systems. Protection in the event of an unplanned outage requires the best technical resources, call management systems and parts stocking available. Interactive is your availability solution.

SPECIALISED SERVICE

Interactive has more manufacturer trained and certified engineers per maintained device than any other service provider in Australia and New Zealand. This enables us to deliver an unsurpassed first call resolution rate of 96%.

100% PARTS AVAILABILITY GUARANTEE

All parts are stocked locally for systems under maintenance – no delays due to parts being shipped from interstate or overseas.

DEDICATED ENGINEERS

We dedicate one or more engineers to your account. This familiarity with your critical IT infrastructure and personnel delivers highly effective responses in all situations.
